BEAL Outstanding Faculty Award (OFA) Criteria Details

Outstanding Faculty Awards are made each year to tenure system faculty for outstanding total service to the University. The nominations are based on teaching/mentoring; advising; research; publications; committee work; public and professional service including extension, outreach, continuing education and work with government agencies; or a combination of activities. Administrative excellence and length of service may not be used as the sole criteria for nomination. Nominees usually have at least five years of service at Michigan State University, though accomplishments across the nominee's career will be considered.

NOMINATOR STATEMENT (Letter)

No more than two pages preferred. NOT to exceed five pages.

The statement must address the criteria:

RESEARCH AND CREATIVE ACTIVITIES (See University Award Criteria for Librarians)

- Evidence of exceptional research and creative activities in traditional, nontraditional, or emerging areas
- Across disciplines and areas
- Dimensions:
 - Discovery of new knowledge, including creative activities, originality of approach
 - Development of innovative problem-solving strategies or methodologies
 - Application and dissemination of knowledge, including extension activities
