

Ginger Chicken

1960½ Lake Lansing Rd., Haslett, MI 48840

517-555-2041 gingrcky@msu.edu

Objective: To obtain an entry level environmental scientist / geologist position.

Education: Geological Sciences, Bachelor of Science December 2007
Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI

Related Experience:

Hydrologist-Student Trainee, May 2006 – August 2006
USGS-Michigan Water Science Center, Lansing, MI

- Compiled, organized, and interpreted hydrogeologic information and data from available resources concerning water quality, quantity, availability, and movement
- Wrote hydrogeologic summaries for Michigan counties
- Designed and maintained Microsoft Access database to organize hydrologic information
- Collaborated with Michigan State University, MDEQ, and other members of the USGS
- Managed and recorded time spent on different projects, and met project deadlines

Undergraduate Research Assistant, April 2005 - August 2005
Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI

- Interpreted and correlated geophysical and lithologic well logs
- Collected and prepared samples for petrographic, geochemical, and particle size analysis
- Developed a Microsoft Access database to aid in sample and data organization

Environmental Lab Technician, September 2003 - May 2003
Fibertec Environmental Services, Holt, MI

- Extracted and concentrated semi-volatile organic contaminants in soil and water samples
- Cleaned and labeled laboratory equipment
- Retrieved and delivered samples for analysis

Skills:

- Competent in Microsoft Office, SPSS, MatLab
- Introduced to ArcView, Stella, and PHREEQC software
- American Red Cross First Aid and Adult CPR certified, February 2005

Additional Work History:

07/2004 - 08/2005 Prep Cook Caffe Tosi

05/2001 - 08/2001 Ornithology Field Assistant Zoology Dept., Michigan State University

09/2000 - 12/2001 Banquet Server Kellogg Center, Michigan State University