

Justin Case
6446 S. Kedzie, Chicago, IL 60628

(513) 000-3885
casejust@msu.edu

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Zoology

May 2007

Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI ■ Honors College
Cumulative G.P.A. 3.3 / 4.0

Additional major in Fisheries and Wildlife

Coursework in Statistics and Organic Chemistry

CPR and First Aid Certified

WORK EXPERIENCE

Research Assistant

Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI
Department of Fisheries and Wildlife

September 2006-present

- Completed data analysis using Excel and Sigma Plot
- Managed bibliographic data in EndNote
- Estimated species range and landcover changes using ArcView GIS
- Inventoried data from past research to create new database in Excel

Research Assistant

Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI
Department of Fisheries and Wildlife

Summer 2005

- Verified habitat model for Michigan Department of Natural Resources by detecting presence and absence of bird and mammal species in northern Michigan forests
- Collaborated with team members to manage project within time and funding constraints
- Instructed team members on mammal trapping methods

Tutor

America Reads: America Counts, East Lansing, MI
Pattengill Middle School

January 2004 - May 2004

- Tutored students in the classroom in Pre-Algebra, English, History, and Science
- Tutored students outside the classroom, individually and in groups of 2 -3
- Worked in a group to run after school program for children ages 10-13, including coordinating homework activities and recreation

Construction Team Member

Case Construction Company, Escanaba, MI

Summers 2001-2003

- Assisted in residential and industrial construction projects as part of a diverse team of trades people and managers
- Repaired and maintained power tools, light machinery and transportation vehicles

VOLUNTEER WORK

Habitat for Humanity

January 2003-Dec. 2005

- Participated in work crews; Recruited volunteers and assisted organization to distribute care packages in a fund-raising campaign